(a) The headings used do not form part of the Conditions and are for convenience only.

(b) Where the context admits or requires words importing the singular number will include the plural number, those denoting a given gender will include all other genders and those denoting natural persons will include corporations.

(c) “Including” is not a term of limitation.

3. CONTRACTS AND QUOTES

(a) The contract between the Customer and the Supplier is constituted by: (i) the Conditions; (ii) the terms of any credit agreement between the Customer and the Supplier ("Credit Terms"); and (iii) the extent to which the Supplier accepts an order in accordance with clause 3(b) (each a “Contract”). The Conditions, the Credit Terms and the extent to which the Supplier accepts the order govern all contracts for the supply of goods and/or services by the Supplier to the Customer and constitute the entire agreement in connection with the supply of goods and/or services between the Supplier and the Customer. All prior representations, trade custom or previous dealings between the Supplier and the Customer are excluded and are not applicable in the interpretation of the Contract. No modification or variation to the Conditions or the Credit Terms, any additional terms or conditions or any terms inconsistent with the Conditions or the Credit Terms provided by the Customer (whether put forward in the order, the Customer’s specification or otherwise) will bind the Supplier, unless expressly and specifically agreed to in writing by the Supplier. The Conditions and the Credit Terms supersede any terms and conditions which have previously governed a contract for the sale of goods or services by the Supplier to the Customer. The Conditions and Credit Terms will prevail to the extent of any inconsistency between them and any quotation, order or other documents from the Customer. The Conditions and Credit Terms bind the Customer even if the Supplier or the Customer does not sign them promptly or at all.

(b) A quotation will not constitute an offer to sell goods or services to the Customer. No contract for the supply of goods or services will exist between the Supplier and the Customer until a Customer's order for goods or services has been accepted by the Supplier (such acceptance of the Customer’s orders may be made and communicated by the Supplier in writing or by overt act of acceptance). The Customer will be under no obligation to place an order with the Supplier. The Supplier may accept or refuse any order for goods or services in its absolute discretion and may make its acceptance of an order conditional upon it receiving a satisfactory credit assessment of the Customer.

(c) Subject to clause 4, the Supplier may vary the Conditions or Credit Terms by notice in writing to the Customer. If the Contract is a Consumer Contract or a Small Business Contract, then the Customer may consider the variation and, if not acceptable, may elect not to proceed with the purchase of the goods or services ordered before the date of the variation but which are intended to be subject to the variation. If the Contract is not a Consumer Contract or a Small Business Contract, the Customer agrees that goods delivered and services performed and/or ordered after the date of the notice of the variation will be subject to the variation and acceptance of the goods or services or the placing of the order will be deemed to be an acceptance of such varied terms and conditions.

(d) Should there be any variation to any of the information supplied by the Customer to the Supplier in any credit application or there has been a change of control of the Customer, the Customer must not assert any right of set-off against the Supplier’s personal representatives, successors and permitted assigns and will be for the benefit of the Supplier’s successors and assigns.

4. PRICING/PAYMENT

(a) Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, the amount payable for goods and services will be the price on the Supplier’s invoice. The price is exclusive of any freight charges, customs duty and GST or similar taxes, which the Customer will pay in addition to the price at the same time and in the same manner as the price.

(b) Notwithstanding any prior acknowledgment by the Supplier of the price of goods and services, the prices specified for goods and services may at the Supplier’s option be subject to alteration to reflect the Supplier’s prices and charges in effect at the time of delivery or performance. Any such price change will only be applicable to Customer orders not yet accepted by the Supplier, provided the Customer is given 30 days prior notice of the price change.

(c) Any variations in the invoice or contract price as a consequence of currency fluctuations, taxes, customs duty or other impost will be to the Customer’s account. Any such price change will only be applicable to Customer orders not yet accepted by the Supplier, provided the Customer is given 30 days prior notice of the price change.

(d) The Customer must not assert any right of set-off against the Supplier and will pay all amounts owing to the Supplier without deduction.

(e) Where credit is extended to the Customer, all account invoices and statements will be submitted by the Supplier electronically (“E-invoice”) to the Customer via the Customer’s nominated email address.

(f) The Supplier will not, generally, send a paper copy of the invoice or statement unless the Customer requests it. The Customer can obtain a paper copy of the invoice or statement by sending a written request to the Supplier. The Customer acknowledges that the Supplier will charge a $5 service fee for the delivery of paper copies of invoices or statements (“Service Fee”) and agrees to pay such fee on demand. The Supplier may vary the Service Fee from time to time by written notice to the Customer.

(g) Where the Supplier submits an E-invoice to the Customer’s nominated email address, the E-invoice will be deemed to have been received by the Customer on the date it was sent unless the Supplier receives a notification that the email did not reach its intended recipient and the records of the Supplier will be conclusive in this regard.

(h) It is the Customer’s responsibility to ensure that the contact information provided to the Supplier is current and accurate including the Customer’s nominated email address, which the Supplier will use to submit the E-invoice. The Customer agrees to promptly notify the Supplier of any changes to the Customer’s contact information.

(i) Unless otherwise agreed to by the Supplier, the only accepted means of paying accounts will be by cash, bank cheque, COD or electronic funds transfer.

(j) Where payments are made that are not made in accordance with clause 4(i), the Customer will also pay the Supplier an administration fee of 1.25% of the amount so paid, if paid by Visa or Master Card, or administration fee of 2.97% of the amount so paid, if paid by American Express. That fee is agreed to be the liquidated cost of processing that abnormal payment. That fee is payable at the same time as the account to which it relates is due.

(k) Payments received by the Supplier will be applied first in payment of interest and any costs of and incidental to debt recovery and any amounts payable pursuant to clause 4(j) and then in reduction of the principal.

(l) Payments received without remittance advice will be applied first to the oldest balance owing by the Customer.

5. ACCOUNT TERMS

(a) Until the Supplier confirms that a credit facility has been granted to the Customer, all goods and services must be paid for on a cash on delivery or performance basis. If a credit facility has been granted, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Supplier, the Supplier will issue a tax invoice for the goods and services and the Customer will pay for all goods delivered or collected and services performed in any calendar month on or before the last trading day in the following month.

(b) Credit extended to the Customer for all goods sold and services performed will be made in accordance with the Credit Terms. In all other respects, the Conditions will apply.

(c) If the Customer does not pay the Supplier by the due date, the Customer will pay interest on monies due, charged on a daily basis at the Interest Rate from the due date for payment until the actual date of payment. If the Customer has an account with the Supplier, the Supplier may debit the Customer’s account monthly or at such other times it chooses for such interest and it will be payable together with the overdue amount. The parties agree that any such interest is a genuine pre-estimate of the loss that will be suffered by the Supplier for late payment.

(d) The Customer will pay any legal costs (on a full indemnity basis), stamp duties, any bank charges or merchant fees or like charges levied on the Supplier by any banker or other credit provider whose banking or credit card facilities are utilised by the Customer for paying the Supplier any amounts on any account and any other expenses payable of and incidental to the performance or enforcement of or any litigation on any Contract or any credit application or any security documents signed by the Customer or any Guarantor together with any other collection costs and dishonoured cheque fees.

(e) Despite any other clause in the Contract, the Supplier may without notice alter the Customer’s credit limit for any reason at its discretion (including to meet the Customer’s then buying needs) or, if the Customer is in breach of a condition of the Contract, withdraw the Customer’s credit facilities. The Supplier will notify the Customer of any alteration in the credit limit by notice to that effect in the following monthly account statement. Any credit approval limit noted in this form, any monthly statement or otherwise is for the Supplier's convenience only and does not reflect what may actually be the credit limit of the account at any one time.

(f) The Customer is liable for all purchases made under its account number and/or account name. It is not the responsibility of the Supplier to confirm authority for the purposes of supplying goods or services to the Customer, its agent(s) or those who the Supplier deems to be its agents. It is the sole responsibility of the Customer to ensure there is no unauthorised use of their account number or name.

(g) The Supplier may in its absolute discretion charge an annual account keeping fee ("Account Fee"). The Account Fee will be equal to 1.0% of the credit limit or such lesser amount as determined by the Supplier. The Supplier may debit the Account Fee to the Customer’s account annually in advance or at such other times as the Supplier determines.

6. PERSONAL PROPERTY SECURITIES ACT

(a) The Customer agrees that the Conditions may create a PMSI in the goods (and their proceeds) supplied presently and in the future by the Supplier to the Customer and a security interest in the personal property of the Customer.

(b) The Customer agrees to do all things necessary and execute all documents reasonably required to register the security interests granted by the Customer under the Conditions and to ensure that the Supplier acquires perfected security interests under the PPSA.

(c) The Customer will, upon demand, pay all of the Supplier’s expenses and legal costs (on a solicitor/agent/client basis) in relation to or in connection with the registration of the Supplier’s security interests and all other costs associated with protection and enforcement of the Supplier’s security interests created by the Conditions or by undertaking an audit under the provisions of the PPSA, or the repossession of the goods the subject of the Conditions or the exercise, enforcement or preservation of any right or interest under the Conditions or any contract that the Supplier has with the Customer.

(d) This PMSI does not lose its priority as a result of the renewal, refinance, consolidation or restructure of the subject matter of the Conditions and any purchase money obligations.

(e) The Customer waives its rights under the following provisions of the PPSA, to the extent that it is permitted by Law to:

(i) receive a notice of intention of removal of an accession (s195);

(iii) receive a notice of enforcement action against liquid assets (s121(4));

(iv) receive a notice of disposal of goods by the Supplier purchasing the goods (s129);

(v) receive a notice to dispose of the goods (s130);

(vi) receive a statement of account following disposal of the goods (s132(2));

(vii) receive a statement of account if no disposal of the goods, six monthly (s132(4));

(viii) receive notice of any proposal by the Supplier to retain the goods (s135(2));

(ix) object to any proposal by the Supplier to either retain and dispose of the goods (s137(2));

(x) redeem the goods (s142);

(xi) reinstate the security agreement (s143); and

(xii) receive a notice of any verification statement (s157(1) and 157(3)).

(f) To the extent permitted by the PPSA, the Conditions exclude any provisions of the PPSA which may be excluded in the Supplier’s discretion and which would otherwise confer rights on the Customer.

(g) The Customer further agrees that where the Supplier has rights in addition to those under Part 4 of the PPSA, those rights will continue to apply.

(h) The Customer’s right to possession of goods still owned by the Supplier under the Conditions will cease if:

(i) where the Customer is an individual, the Customer commits an act of bankruptcy;

(ii) where the Customer is a company, circumstances arise where a receiver, manager, administrator or controller becomes entitled to take possession of any of the Customer’s assets, any proceedings are instituted for winding up of the Customer or the Customer enters into a Deed of Company Arrangement;

(iii) the Customer ceases or threatens to cease conducting business in the normal manner or applies for deregistration or receives a deregistration notice;

(iv) any cheque the Customer provides to the Supplier or any Fletcher Group Member is dishonoured for payment;

(v) the Customer fails to comply with any demand for payment issued by the Supplier or any Fletcher Group Member;

(vi) the Customer breaches any of the Conditions and/or is in default of any other agreement between the Supplier or any other Fletcher Group Member and the Customer.

(j) The Customer expressly and irrevocably agrees that, until such time as title in the goods passes to the Customer, the Supplier is entitled to enter any premises where the goods supplied by the Supplier are located to repossess, remove and sell such goods. The Customer (its successors and assigns, including any external manager or administrator) will not object to the Supplier, or its agents, entering any premises for the purpose of this clause and agrees to indemnify and keep the Supplier indemnified in respect of any claims, actions and costs that may arise against the Supplier in relation to the removal, repossession and sale of the goods pursuant to the Conditions including any claims brought by third parties, except to the extent the Supplier has been negligent or breached the Law or the Contract.

(k) The Customer agrees that repossession and retention of the goods pursuant to the PPSA will only satisfy so much of the monies which may become payable to the Supplier by the Customer as is equivalent to the Supplier’s estimation of the market value of the goods as it is at the date of repossession and the repossesson and retention will immediately extinguish any rights for interest the Supplier has on the value of the goods recovered.

(l) Until ownership of the goods passes, the Customer must not give the Supplier a written demand or allow any other person to give the Supplier a written demand requiring the Supplier to register a financing change statement under the PPSA or enter into or allow any other person to enter into the personal property securities register a financing change statement under the PPSA.

(l) The Customer agrees not to change the Customer name or undertake any changes to any documents that the Supplier has registered, requires to be registered or are capable of being registered without the prior written consent of the Supplier.

(a) the Supplier has any reasonable grounds to believe that the Customer may not be able to make due and punctual payment to the Supplier or there is any default or failure by the Customer in making due and punctual payment to the Supplier of any moneys owing by the Customer; or
